

WHEREAS, in keeping with the best tradition of their profession, secretaries are accepting vital responsibilities and are performing important roles in commerce, industry and government; and

WHEREAS, professional development for secretaries should be stressed to remind the secretary of benefits from continued education and to remind the employer he will gain a better qualified secretary; and,

WHEREAS, to honor the secretaries now doing their jobs diligently and to encourage others to enter this worthy career, it is essential that rightful recognition be given them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby declare the week of April 23 through April 29, 1972, as and ask that business, industry and government join in giving recognition to secretaries, paying special attention to Secretaries' Day on April 26.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 10th day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.
